SUMMARY OF DETAILS: On the above date, Pocono Mountain Regional Police Department assisted the United States Marshall Service in arresting fugitive from Justice, Henry Koroma. Koroma was wanted by the state of Ohio, for a probation violation, originating from a robbery incident. Upon arrival Koroma refused to exit the residence and as a result the Pocono Mountain Regional Police SWAT team was activated. Upon arrival of SWAT, negotiations were initiated and Koroma exited the residence and was taken into custody without further incident.

A search warrant was then executed at the residence which resulted in the seizure of heroin, cocaine, marijuana, prescription pills and five handguns.

As a result of the search, Ebony Ortiz, 22; Deshawn Finnikin, 20; Arthur Pultz, 61; Teri Pultz, 52; all from Blakeslee were arrested and charged with Possession with intent to deliver a controlled substance.

Koroma was additionally charged with PWID, Persons not to possess a firearm, criminal use of communication device, possession of a firearm with obliterated serial number and receiving stolen property.

All five individuals were transported to the Monroe County Correctional Facility where they will be arraigned by District Magistrate Richard Claypool.
